

POLICY OF QUALITY AND ENVIRONMENT

The Integrated Quality and Environment Management System of FUTURECO BIOSCIENCE, S.A. provides the framework for quality and environmental goals and establishes, the following criteria for development of its activities within the scope of the company.

- Strictly accomplishing with technical and legal requirements applicable to our products, which are guaranteed to the end user.
- Fulfill our client's expectations on quality and environmental performance and technical supports from FUTURECO BIOSCIENCE.
- Developing new products to address concrete problems, cover our customer's needs, are respectful to the environment and contribute to reduce environmental impact of the agricultural activity.
- Continuously improving of innovative, logistic and productive procedures that allow an efficient use of natural resources, raw materials and energy, so as for reduction, recycle and reutilization of waste.
- Spread quality and environmental policy between employees, customer, suppliers, subcontractors and other interested parts; maintain the Integrated Management System updated and appropriate to the nature magnitude quality and environmental requirements of our services and activities.

To ensure the maintenance of Quality Management System, the General Direction of FUTURECO BIOSCIENCE, S.A. is committed to:

Define and review the Quality Objectives, providing the necessary means to their accomplishment.

Ensure the suitability of human resources and the material destined to the production and commercialization of FUTURECO BIOSCIENCE's products and to the providing of services, with the aim of obtaining the complete satisfaction of our customers.

Motivate the team to accomplish the principles of Quality and Environment Management System establishes.

CEO